

THERE CAN BE NO MISTAKE.

We think that this season's productions excel all predecessors in loveliness of style, ingenuity of ornament and beauty of shades. Every day develops something new, something artistic, so that our most familiar salesmen nod approvingly to our buyers.

The public will also admire and buy our crepons, our cheverons, our robe suits, our Scotch suitings, our trimmed suits our latest robe suits, and the amazing variety of novelties produced by manufacturing ingenuity to gratify every degree of taste or fancy.

adequate to his superior abilities. It is un-derstood that the work which he has undertakes to perform for the Brigham Young Memorial association, as detailed below, will occupy his time the greater part of two years, and when finished there is no doubt but that the monument will be a credit to the territory, and a lasting honor to the man whose genius formed it. As soon as the committee on organization shall bave made its report, which is delayed by the absence of Hon. F. S. Richards in Washington, lists will be opened for the subscriptions, which are already pouring in at a lively rate to Judge Smith, the reasurer of the association, at the Descrot National bank. The popularity of this subscription is simply amazing, as even now, before the lists are opened, the treas-urer is stopped on the street by all classes of people who signify their desire to con-tribute their mite towards the perpetua-tion of the name and memory of Briguam Young.
